Courageous Heart Marriage Retreat for Coaches

May 4 - May 6, 2012

The WinShape Retreat Center

(Located near Rome, GA, on the beautiful mountain campus of Berry College.)

TO AND THROUGH....

Fellowship of Christian Athletes is committed to supporting coaches in the important and busy task of working with athletes and all whom they influence. During the sports seasons, many coaches' families are denied quality time; as a result marriages are strained. This weekend is being provided for coaches who need some time away with their spouse to renew and reacquaint.

Brought to you by:

WINSHAPE RETREAT 'S HEART...

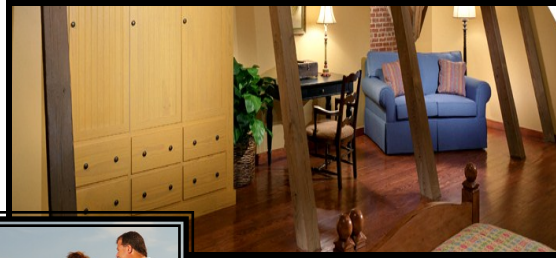

Marriages respond to practical teaching in an inspirational setting. Growing and learning alongside your spouse can be one of the most fulfilling and rewarding experiences as a couple.

WinShape Retreat offers a variety of programs for couples.

Our communicators include licensed psychologists and counselors, ministry leadership, relationship experts, and trained experiential learning and teambuilding staff.

About WinShape

Retreat Center...

WinShape Retreat is located in

Mt. Berry, GA, nestled amidst 26,000 acres of wildlife refuge on the Mountain Campus of Berry College. In keeping with that retreat atmosphere, they are dedicated to treating each guest to a "media-free" environment. WinShape Retreat is just a short drive from places like Atlanta, Birmingham, or Chattanooga, yet feels like you are miles away from your daily routine. The word retreat has always involved the concept of getting away. But with all WinShape has to offer, we like to think it's not so much about running away from something as it is running to something.

Come, join us.....

WHAT OTHER COACHES SAY...

"My wife and I would just like to take this chance to thank you and the FCA for sponsoring our trip to WinShape this past weekend. Wow—what a place and what an eye-opening experience!!!!!!"

It was exactly what I needed to try to get my priorities back in order after a very hectic beginning to a new school year.

The staff, the food, the scenery, and just the total atmosphere was amazing!!!!

I think too it helped me to understand where I am spiritually and where I need to try to go.

Once again, we cannot begin to thank you guys enough for this special gift!!! "

COURAGEOUS HEARTS

A weekend designed to restore communication and rekindle affection.

The pace and pressures of life place enormous strains on a marriage. Couples often find themselves just coexisting. They share the same house and split the bills, but that's about it.

"Courageous Hearts" helps couples rebuild vital connections in their marriage through clear communication and healthy ways of resolving conflicts.

"Absolutely the BEST marriage retreat Brad and I have ever experienced. We were treated as royalty! It was great for us to escape our busy lives and get away to dive into God's word and receive guidance from their marriage leaders. We were able to set new goals and direction for our family. We hope to be able to go back this summer. We have told many couples about it and hope to take others with us.

Thank you for the incredible time we had."
